

TIME HAS COME

Everything is in hand. All Grace is coming. Time is not coming. Time has come. Time is now approaching when if people do not listen things will be lost, never to be regained. Opportunities that come once in many lifetimes have already been lost by some but unless people start listening now there is just no time for second chance.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

Mother

Thy Will be done in Heaven and earth always. It is His will that much Yajnya is performed. Do Yajnya further. You become purified. The Fire teaches you. Negative energies leave the body.

Jesus Christ has remained truthful according to His task.

On higher dimension you live without space and time. Go to Him and He will refresh you.

This is the time of our times, the harvest, the ripeness. You reap what you have sown.

Sing Mantras in a circle. Jesus says "When two or three are together in my name (vibration) there I am." Christ consciousness is just in the middle as a lifting element. All rise together.

Enlightenment means to get higher knowledge. Self realization means to bring the knowledge of the Self on to the material level.

Higher knowledge needs no words. It is there and is lived. Blessed are they that do the right thing.

The special instrument of man is his will. Through that he can rise higher or fall down. This is the great privilege for the human species.

Your body is the temple of God. Be conscious of that and keep your body pure. He is always with you.

Love is blind. It gives without looking at the person or the situation.

HE loves you. He is in fire, air, ether. HIS spirit works everywhere, sometimes clearly, sometimes not so clearly. However do not underestimate HIS greatness because of your incapacity to recognize HIM. AUM. Peace be with you.

Live the will of God now and forever.

Keep yourself always open that God can let flow through you what His holy will has decided. Be always devoted to HIM.

Shree will let flow energy through you that a new world be created for HIS praise and welfare of creation. IT BE. AUM.

The Lord gathers HIS sheep and carries them home in HIS Kingdom. AUM. The LORD puts HIS sheep in green pastures and no one will ever be thirsty. So speaks the LORD. AUM.

“I am your Lord. You shall have no other gods besides ME.” Follow strictly this command. It is very important. Therefore it stands at the first place. The second one “Love all” is the first again only on the material level. Love all as materialized God.

In ME is all. In ME you find all. Remain faithful to ME every second. Tolerate no other thought. Keep everything open only for ME and I will pour MYSELF into you in MY full greatness and glory. AUM. Remain always in MY unity and greatness.

We are merged. It is ONE UNITY. It is a very high level. Steady consciousness preserves it. AUM. All bodily sheaths are falling. IT IS SAMADHI.

Aeons of time will pass away but never MY words will pass away. AUM. The path for the Lord is ready.

Exult and celebrate because the ONE who comes is the Lord. Halleluja.

He who has conquered to him I give to sit at MY right. Halleluja.

Exult and celebrate because great is the Lord and HE is full of kindness. AUM.

Blessed are those who receive HIM in their hearts and keep because heaven is for them.

Blessed are those who will because they will reach their goal.

Blessed are those who give for they will receive. AUM. Blessed are the understanding which do what they understood. Praised be the Lord because HIS name is glorious. Halleluja.

Rely on HIM and you will be protected from sunrise to sunset.

Keep the body clean and food healthy because I live in it.

I take you back in MY kingdom again and again, till you remain forever in it. Your place is here and nowhere else. MY love is infinite. Come into the sea of bliss and remain in it. AUM.

This is the mystic marriage, the fusion of duality, the trinity. Remain in WE.

The worldly level runs automatically right. Care only about the spirit. It is the deciding element. The rest is only the consequence.

Remain steadily and consciously in WE ARE. AUM.

Be seized deeply by this most glorious gift of all gifts till it penetrates your inner core.

Let your body move because of this truth and live it. It is the highest, the most perfect, the most blissful. Live it for the blessing of the whole earth.

All heavens rejoice and exult because the child has come home. Halleluja.

Sing and thank the LORD because HE is mighty and HIS goodness lasts from eternity to eternity. Halleluja.

To Him be the praise and thanks from sunrise to sunset. Halleluja. He has lifted HIS child that it shall sit to HIS right and HIS servant has presented himself to HIM. Halleluja.

First get used to OUR unity. It flows around you like a loving sea and is present everywhere. It is almighty and no words can describe it.

The LORD is with you and your spirit. Blossom in HIM like a flower and thank HIM because HE is mighty. Halleluja.

I have saved you from all misery. AUM. WE ARE eternal and always, infinite and glorious, indescribable.

I am the LORD. You should fulfill MY commandments for your welfare in heaven and on earth. Keep yourself free from any sort of binding and remain only in WE ARE.

In this you find all what you search for in vain, all what you long.

It is the reality of all life, the essence. In ME you find all. Therefore remain always in ME, in MY communion, in WE ARE. Through your consciousness you can solve every attachment here and then you are free for ME, for the WE ARE, the only truth and highest reality.

Be witness to the great light which will burst out of you. He who has seen IT bears steady witness to it.

Highly praised be the name of the Lord from sunrise to sunset. Almighty is great. Praised by His name. All hosts and the total hierarchy make the greatest efforts to fulfill HIS will.

The Lord is always with you and protects you in all ways. You will always live less in time and more and more in HIS rhythm. AUM. Peace be with you.

All nature, all creatures praise the Lord because He is wonderful and mighty. Blessings of God and Peace of God be with you.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

CHRONIC DISEASES RISING IN YOUNG PEOPLE

Lisa Powers

For a startling look at health in U.S. today, read these findings from the International Nutritional Academy (a nonprofit organization which includes a network of doctors).

“While it is commonly assumed that American health is improving due to advances in medical science, recent statistical evidence indicates that in the most affluent country in the world there is an increasing incidence of chronic disease among young people. We hope to demonstrate that the apparent increase in chronic disease is not due simply to the fact that people are living longer — a widely argued point of view.”

“... Our inquiry into Vital and Health Statistics and U.S. Governmental Health Agency Reports reveals the number of chronically disabled Americans to be increasing in every age group. Most surprisingly chronic diseases are on the rise even among the young.”

“... One study recently said CANCER IS NOW THE LEADING CAUSE OF DEATH IN CHILDREN UNDER THE AGE OF 15. For many years, traumatic accident was the major cause of death in this age group. In fact 50 years ago a case of malignant disease in childhood was such a rarity that it was generally written about in medical journals. Now we see large number of our young succumbing to leukemia, Hodgkin's disease, other lymphomas and oel-aogenic sarcomas, to name a few of the most common childhood cancers. . . Something is obviously very wrong.”

It is estimated that in the 15 to 44 year old age group the rate of heart disease in the United States is the highest in the world . . .”

The exact degree environmental pollution contributes to the above may not be known, but it is a matter of common sense that our daily intake of poisons, irritants and radio-active pollutants from the atmosphere worsens overall health and directly aggravates many ailments such as asthma and heart disease. We can't help but notice that as atmospheric pollution has risen in recent years so have chronic diseases. Now these diseases are attacking children and young people, who may never have the chance to grow into healthy adulthood.

Relief from the toxic, irritating effects of atmospheric pollution and reduced tension on the mind would clearly go a long way towards prevention and cure of the above mentioned conditions.

AGNIHOTRA AND THE FIVEFOLD PATH OFFER JUST THIS, IN THE FORM OF SIMPLE PRACTICES WHICH ANYONE CAN MAKE A PART OF HIS DAILY LIFE. Thousands of people in different parts of the world have found Agnihotra to lessen or completely cure a host of ailments ranging from skin disease to cancer, as well as improving overall health. The Jehles of West Germany have tested Homa Therapy/Agnihotra ash medicines and obtained excellent results (See previous issues of Satsang). Agnihotra ash medicines have never been found to have any harmful side effects. But not only are particular illnesses cured, the overall physical and mental health are positively affected by Agnihotra. Persons who pursue Daan, Tapa, Karma and Swadhyaya carry that effect further to cover their total wellbeing and development of a harmonious life. This is wholistic healing.

Practice Agnihotra for purification of the atmosphere which relieves tension from the mind.

Practice Daan (sharing assets in a spirit of humility) to inculcate non-attachment to worldly possession.

Practice Tapa (Self discipline) for purification of body and mind.

Perform Karma for self purification.

Practice Swadhyaya (Self study, who am I?) for liberation.

This is the Fivefold Path for happy life on the planet.

AGNIHOTRA MEDICINE

Iain Kirkaldy Willys

In N. Ireland we once moved into a house that was infested with rats. The rats were making a great deal of noise. We did Agnihotra and sang some Mantras and suddenly they became very quiet. Within a week they were gone.

In Ireland we were given six battery hens. These birds have spent their lives cramped in a small cage. They had only about a half of their feathers and were very short when we placed them in the house which we had prepared for them. They huddled in one corner together and would not come into the light though the door was left open. We had been told that the battery hens can never adjust to a free range environment. However, we did Agnihotra in the house every day at sunrise and sunset and fed them the ash. They came around us and asked to be picked up even flying on to our arms and shoulders. Gradually after a couple of weeks they began to come outside and soon learned how to peck and forage for themselves. They grew new feathers and laid beautiful eggs and by the next spring we received compliments on our beautiful hens from the neighbors.

We have also used Agnihotra ash for rubbing into the fur of cats and dogs against flea and skin problems. We also gave Agnihotra ash internally for the pets and they improved and developed quickly.

By mixing Agnihotra ash with salt we obtain a very effective tooth powder which we have been using for about three years now. It is very effective in preventing tooth decay.

We did Agnihotra regularly in the garden where it greatly helped the bug problem. The bugs were not eliminated but a harmonization dimension seemed to become an active principle. The bugs were no longer a destructive menace to the garden.
